

Burnaby Horsemen's Association Policy: Turnout

Approved: MARCH 28 2022

Applicability

This section is applicable to all BHA members and guests.

Policy

- 1) Ring 2, Ring 3 and Round Pen are the only areas that can be used for horses turned loose, during which supervision is required.
 - a) Ring 3 can only be used for turnout during designated hours, which are posted at the ring.
- 2) If someone is waiting to use the turnout area, limit your time to 20 minutes, to allow for shared use of the facility.
- 3) More than one (1) horse can occupy the turnout pen at one time, provided that the owners of all horses occupying the turnout agree.
- 4) Upon removal of the horse from the turnout area, the owner/handler shall immediately repair any damage caused by the horse to the turnout area including filling any holes left by the horse.
 - a) For all rings, fill any divots and rake any footing that has been torn up.
 - b) For Ring 3, rake any footing that has been flattened (by rolling) or torn up.
 - c) For Ring 3 and Round Pen, remove any manure left by the horse.
